

[Your Name]

[you@example.com]

[City, Country]

[portfolio or LinkedIn URL]

Summary

[Your job title], [N] years in [field]. [The one thing you are known for, written as a capability rather than an adjective — what you own end to end, or the kind of problem you get handed.]

Experience

[Job Title] | [Employer] | [Year] – Present | [City]

- [Verb] [what you built, ran or fixed], [the number that moved — from what, to what].
- [Verb] [the second thing you owned], [the scale it ran at — how many, how much, how often].
- [Verb] [a problem you removed], [what stopped happening once it was gone].

[Previous Job Title] | [Employer] | [Year] – [Year] | [City]

- [Verb] [the work this role is remembered for], [the measured result].
- [Verb] [one more line worth the space], [a number, or the reason it mattered].

[Earliest Relevant Job Title] | [Employer] | [Year] – [Year] | [City]

- [One line. The oldest role gets the least room — nobody is hiring you for what you did six years ago.]
-

Skills

[Category — e.g. Languages, Tools, Platforms]: [Skill], [Skill], [Skill], [Skill]

[Category]: [Skill], [Skill], [Skill]

[Category — the practice, not the tool]: [Skill], [Skill], [Skill]

Education

[Degree] | [Institution] | [Year] – [Year]