

[Your Name]

[you@example.com]

[City, Country]

[portfolio or LinkedIn URL]

Summary

[Current field] moving into [target field]. [Name the bridge in one sentence: the work you already do that is the same work, described in the target field's words — not why you want the change.]

Skills

[What the target role asks for]: [Skill you already have], [Skill you already have], [Skill you already have]

[Tools — only ones you have actually used]: [Tool], [Tool], [Tool]

[What your old field gave you that the new one is short of]: [Strength], [Strength]

Experience

[Job Title — keep it exactly as it was, it is true] | [Employer] | [Year] — Present | [City]

- [Verb] [the part of this job that is the target job wearing different clothes], [the number].
- [Verb] [a project you ran that your job title does not cover], [what it produced].
- [Verb] [the work involving the people the target role serves], [how many, how often].

[Previous Job Title] | [Employer] | [Year] — [Year] | [City]

- [Verb] [the transferable half of this role], [the measured result].
- [Verb] [something you improved for someone else], [what changed for them].

[Earlier Job Title] | [Employer] | [Year] — [Year] | [City]

- [One line. Keep the history honest and short — the recent reframing is what earns the read.]
-

Education

[Degree, course or certificate] | [Institution] | [Year] — [Year]